YEP-642 II	Part of the new line of "Neo" brass band instruments, the YEP-642II (S) was designed with input from renowned euphonium teacher Bill Millar and acclaimed soloist Steven Walsh. By changing some major parts of the instrument we achieved the specific Brass Band sound we were looking for. A sound that has got a lot of power and projection while keeping the blending with the saxhorn section of Baritone and Tenor Horns. NEO Series, 4 pistons compensating system, 4th valve side action, lacquer finish	£5,642.00	£4,948.00

-------	-------------	---------------------	-----------------------------

MSS-9314	The new 14"x9" SFZ (Sforzando) marching snare drum is a full three inches shorter in depth than the standard Yamaha SFZ snare drum. With a short nine-inch shell depth for a quick snare response, the drum offers a light weight six-ply maple shell for a clear articulate projection. An additional benefit: The short size allows easier range of movement for competitive indoor marching ensembles. Head: batter side - Yamaha REMO White Max, snare side - Yamaha Remo Falam II snare side.	£947.00	£818.00
